

The Queenslander Pictorial.

HUMS WORK AND THE BALKAN EXPEDITION.

ZEPPELIN RAID ON LONDON DISTRICT.
(From Official Press Agency.)
Rubble left right through the roof of this house, which was hit by Zeppelin on Dec. 10, and injured the lives of the children and mother in it. (Contributed photo.)

British soldiers on their way to the camp after their arrival at the Port.

THE LANDING OF THE ALLIED TROOPS AT DALMEIDA.

French infantry marching to their camp. Arrived at the beach in Greek Sand playing water games.

Central Press photo.

Footnote of the 27th December 1914: Holes in the ground, near the trenches, in the trenches.

Footnote of the 27th December 1914: Holes in the ground, near the trenches, in the trenches.

ANZAC AND AFTER

Grouped at the trenches, near the trenches, in the trenches.

A group of men
in the trenches at the trenches.

A group of men
in the trenches at the trenches.

A group of men
in the trenches at the trenches.

A group of men
in the trenches at the trenches.

A group of men
in the trenches at the trenches.

QUEENSLANDERS IN THE NEW TROPICAL FORCE.

See page 25.

Copyright & Reprints photo.

Queenslanders in the New Tropical Force.

Queenslanders in the New Tropical Force.

End of the "Dungarees" Snowball March from Warwick to Brisbane.

THE OFFICIAL RECEIVED BY THE "DUNGAREES" IN THE CITY OF BRISBANE, ON THEIR ARRIVAL IN THE CITY.

—A. B. B. B. B.

THE "DUNGAREES" GROUPED TOGETHER BY THE "DUNGAREES" IN THE CITY OF BRISBANE, AFTER THEIR LONG MARCH FROM WARWICK.

—A. B. B. B. B.